III-A EQUAL OPPORTUNITY POLICY / AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

Equal Opportunity is SLCM's policy. It is SLCM's policy to select the best qualified person for each position in the organization. No employee of SLCM will discriminate against an applicant for employment, a fellow employee, or client because of race, age, gender, color, national origin, sexual orientation, familial status, physical handicap, veteran status, or religious belief. SLCM will comply with all federal, state, and local laws and regulations with respect to non-discrimination in employment and service provision. This policy applies to all employment practices, personnel actions, and service provision.

SLCM has adopted an Affirmative Action policy which essentially means that the agency will aggressively seek out, hire, develop, and promote qualified members of protected groups (defined as racial minorities, women, physically or mentally handicapped, disabled veterans, veterans of the Vietnam era, and persons ages 50 and over).

Other comments:

1. I think the food is greasy usually.
2. Sometimes kids eat it all and want more, sometimes they throw some away.
3. Good amount of food.
4. I think the food helps the kids overall.
5. They probably need this food and they always seem to enjoy it.
6. I've seen Mr. Michael be hard on the kids for throwing food away, like saying, "did you come from Cuba to waste our food?"

It is an excellent addition to Americana – I wish they were here everyday!

Thanks for the wonderful program, the kids really appreciate it!!

1. The food really isn't. The vegetables are all pre-cooked, the juice is high in sugar, and the meat is poor quality. That being said: it provides sustenance nutrition if the kids are hungry.
  2. They tend to throw away the veggies.
  3. If they do their homework afterwards. However the majority go and play afterwards.
- Other: the thing that bothers me the most is the amount of waste.
